

Under the Umbrella

Look up! Grey clouds above,
Swirling all around.
Drip, drip, drip upon your head,
The rain is falling down.

This rain could get us very wet,
But Bunny's not alarmed!
She says "Put up your umbrella!
Or make one with your arms."

Hide under your umbrella arms.

The rain is really pouring down
But we're dry as a bone!
Bunny says it's time to take
Our new umbrellas home!
